Rescue service upsets father

By JIM CARRAVALLAH
Of The Roman Staff

The father of a 17-year-old Romulus youth who died of injuries suffered in an automobile accident thinks his son may have been saved if an ambulance had arrived at the scene of the accident earlier to handle the emergency.

Ernest Scott, the father of Gordon Scott — who died Friday of injuries suffered in an accident — said a doctor at the emergency admitting room in Wayne County General Hospital (WCGH) told him the boy may have been saved "if he had gotten here five minutes earlier."

The elder Scott said his son laid in a field near Beverly Road and Cordell Street in northeastern Romulus for nearly 30 minutes after crashing into a ditch and utility pole at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 12.

"He was laying there breathing real good, but suffering from a head wound," Scott said. "I can't help but believe he could have been saved if an ambulance had gotten there earlier."

Scott added that his son didn't get to the emergency room at WCGH until 8:10 p.m. Sunday — more than 40 minutes after officers of the Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol were called to the scene.

Police reports indicate the youth was driving east on Beverly Road near his home at 6210 Cordell St. when he apparently lost control of the car, skidded into the ditch and hit the utility pole.

The youth's father said that he had suffered injuries in addition to the fatal head injuries "but they weren't that bad."

"The doctor said it was the head injuries which were the most dangerous," Scott said. "The boy slipped into a coma while doctors were treating him."

"The one doctor said that if he had been there five minutes earlier, there would have been a chance to save him."

The father continued: "There were five police cars at the accident while he laid in the field waiting for the ambulance."

"The boy's mother and I stood there waiting too, wondering where the ambulance was."

Police would not speculate on the cause of the accident, but indicated that there were "extensive skid marks" on the road. A spokesman for the Detective Bureau at the Sheriff's Road Patrol headquarters in Westland said that there would be no further investigation of the incident, since it involved only the vehicle driven by the dead youth.

The youth's father, however, said he is seeking some answers on the delay in ambulance service.

The City of Romulus and the Sheriff's Road Patrol do not operate ambulances in the community. Instead a private firm is retained by the city to remain on call for any emergencies in the community.

Officers catch suspects crediting citizen's help

Quick work and some concerned interest by two citizens helped the Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol and the Inkster Police Department apprehend two suspects after an early-morning armed robbery of a Romulus hamburger stand.

Wayne County Sheriff's officers report that the concern of two alert witnesses who followed the suspected get-away car from an armed robbery of Bud's Restaurant near Van Born and Merriman Roads helped police trace the suspects to their Inkster Road home.

According to Deputy Insp. James Haile, the chief law enforcement officer in Romulus, sheriff's officers responded to a report that the restaurant was held up by two men at knifepoint. They learned from witnesses the license number of the suspected get-away car.

The two officers radioed the license number and information on the owner from the Michigan State Police to all departments in the area.

Inkster police recognized the address, and were waiting at the location when the suspects arrived.

"It's concern like this on the part of citizens which helps make the community safe," Haile said.

Arrested were Frank F. Buchanan, 34, and John B. Harper, both of Inkster. Both will face examination in Wayne County Circuit Court today on charges of armed robbery. Both are being held at the Wayne County Jail on $100,000 bond.

Roman asks $$ question

In questioning the mayoral candidates on campaign expenses, The Romulus Roman was told by one candidate to check with the Wayne County Elections Commission Office for a copy of the report. The other candidate did not respond to the question.

The Romulus Roman in its election issue forum asked: "A major concern in all elections is where a candidate receives the money to operate the campaign. What are the names of the donors who have contributed at least $10 to your election campaign and what are the amounts of their contributions? Are there any businesses, community organizations, labor unions or other groups which have contributed anything to your campaign? How much? How much money has been spent on the campaign to date? (This information is no different than what you are expected to keep on record for filing at the Wayne County Elections Commission Office.)"

Mayor Terry L. Troutt, in answer to the question, wrote: "A major portion of the funds for the Troutt Team campaign are raised through the mayor's annual birthday celebration which is held Nov. 1. Therefore, an accurate accounting for the upcoming election cannot be made at this time."

He added: "As noted above, all information pertaining to campaign expenditures is on file at the Wayne County Elections Commission Office. A report has been filed by the Troutt Team for the primary election and a report will be filed following the general election Nov. 4."

"This is public information and The Romulus Roman can receive a copy by requesting same at the Wayne County Elections Commission Office."

Challenger James Stewart did not answer the question.

The Romulus Roman will request copies of campaign expenditures for candidates running in the primary election. A summary of the reports will be published next week.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the last in The Romulus Roman's series of election issue forums. As in past weeks, we urge residents to cut out the forums for re-reading before the general election.

Project coordinator says

'Pride' will upgrade city

By JIM CARRAVALLAH
Of The Roman Staff

A little pride in Romulus may go a long way to upgrade the value of a home in the city.

And Louise Comerford, coordinator of Romulus' new Neighborhood Center in the Meadows Subdivision is willing to tell her story.

The 3-year Romulus resident, whose job it will be to coordinate communication between city government and residents of the subdivision to help upgrade newer subdivisions in the city, is a case in point on how determination and a little work can make a house a home in the area.

"I feel strongly about the city's program to help improve the neighborhoods which have been suffering with the problems of abandoned and blighted housing," Mrs. Comerford said. "That's why I was pleased to be named to this post."

After only a week on the job, Mrs. Comerford reported that 35 persons stopped by the Neighborhood Center to discuss the program sponsored by the city to upgrade the environment of the Meadows, Applewood and Gingertree subdivisions through a positive action program.

"It saddens me to see people give up on this area, after I learned that by caring, something can be done," Mrs. Comerford said. "I was unhappy after I first moved here, because a house was abandoned nearby my own, and I didn't believe any person should have to live by a vacant house, and the nuisance it caused."

"But instead of leaving, I decided to upgrade my own property, and when I planted shrubs and grew a lawn, my neighbors followed suit, until my area became one of the better ones in the subdivision."

"Others can do it too, if they want."

Mrs. Comerford added that she is glad she stayed and fought blight "because it showed that a positive attitude is catching."

Her job, according to Mayor Terry

L. Troutt, will be to give that same positive attitude to other residents of the subdivision who may be suffering up to five years of neglect of homes near theirs by the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

A 9-point action plan has been devised to improve the subdivision with portions including:

- preparing an accurate list of all vacant properties and their owners;
- insuring vacant areas are secured and cleared of weeds and trash;
- surveying the area for ordinance violations;
- insuring that ordinance violators clean up their problems;
- learning if any other homes will become vacant;
- working for a type of ownership program to insure that abandoned homes are put back on the market;
- providing a meeting center for district groups;
- serving as an information center and gathering house for complaints.

The center, located at 28327 Leroy Street is open to the public.

Office hours will be noon to 8 p.m. Monday, Thursday and Friday and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday.

Monsterous grasp

This young Romulus miss is one of many who may be frightened as part of the Romulus Jaycee and Jaycee Auxiliary-sponsored haunted house. But it's all for fun and a good cause. Hours for the house, located on Smith Road east of Middle Belt Road, will be 5 p.m. to 10 p.m. weekdays and 2 p.m. to 10 p.m. weekends.

Jaycee Auxiliary members dress in haunting costumes to guard the portals of the house. Admission will be 50-cents per person, with proceeds going to finance city improvement projects sponsored by the Jaycees. — The Romulus Roman photo.

Vira remembers way back when in Romulus

Remember when Romulus was a town that people came to on Saturday to do their shopping? One member of the business community does.

Vira Petraska has been helping four generations of Romulus residents with their banking needs, first as an employee of the Romulus State Bank and then with Manufacturers Bank when the two firms merged in 1960.

Mrs. Petraska is marking her 40th year of employment in the banking industry.

Starting in banking in 1935, she recalls when Detroit Metropolitan Airport was not an integral part of the Romulus community and the bank stayed open on Saturday to accommodate merchants because of a lack of a night depository.

"Someone had to come in on Saturday night to accept the merchants' deposits for the day," she said.

Banking has changed a great deal since Mrs.

Petraska first became involved in it. Back then, money was borrowed in amounts of $50 and $100 or 30 or 60 days.

"Often the money was not repaid on the due date," she added. "People would come in, give the teller 50 cents and say, 'I'd like to have another 30 days.'"

When she first started with the Romulus State Bank, she was one of three employees who did a little bit of everything from bookkeeping, typing, proofing and posting, savings and checking transactions.

When the bank moved to its present site in 1952, Mrs. Petraska sat at the receptionist's desk, "to see someone they (the customers) knew, who knew them and the bank."

In 1960 she again was asked to reassure customers that the merger of the two banks would not mean a loss of personal identity.

And even though the bank has changed, becoming a member of modern banking, the personal attention the customer gets hasn't, Mrs. Petraska added.

"In a small town people ask you for all kinds of advice about things that aren't even related to banking," she said.

She's been asked to recommend doctors, lawyers, hospitals for emergencies and substitute ingredients for a favorite chili recipe. Industrialization definitely is a part of Romulus now and there's less personal contact with customers, mainly apartment dwellers, but Mrs. Petraska tries to remember their names.

"I guess they don't expect it," she said, adding that "I've never lost interest in my job. It's rewarding to know that after all these years you still are able to do things for them."

PASSING GRADE—Ray Kehoe of the Bureau of School Services for the University of Michigan (UM) (seated, left) offers Belleville High School Principal John Ford (standing), Van Buren Schools Supt. Dale E. Kaulitz (seated, center) and Douglas Brown, director of instruction for the school system, a verbal report on the status of instruction at Belleville High School. The preliminary report indicated that Belleville High has a good curriculum and excellent staff morale which is hindered by poor facilities in offering instruction. A more-detailed written report will be sent to the school system within the next month. The UM visit and evaluation is one of two evaluations offered the school during each 7-year cycle. The UM visit comes in between the 7-year visits by the North Central Accreditation agency.

HCMA workers honored

Three residents of the Belleville - Romulus community were among six retirees and several employees honored at the annual recognition dinner, staged by the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority (HCMA).

The sole local retiree was Herbert P. Hamilton of New Boston, who at the age of 60 has quit his post as foreman of building maintenance and construction at Lower Huron Metropark near Belleville.

His retirement was effective July 1. Hamilton had been an HCMA employee for more than 20 years.

Lower Huron Metropark employees honored with service pins were Donald Vance of Belleville and Oliver J. Avery and Billie J. Walls, also both of Belleville.

Vance received his 25-year pin. He is a warehouse clerk. Avery and Miss Walls both received 15-year pins. She is a secretary, while Avery is the assistant park superintendent.

9 of 18 candidates attend election program

Only nine of the 18 candidates on the Nov. 4 general election ballot chose to attend the Romulus Area PTA Council "Meet the Candidate" night. It was held Friday at Romulus High School.

Six of 13 council candidates, including incumbents Lngg Coleman, Joan A. Lee, Beverly McAnally, Bill Oakley and Jack Trumble and challenger Jon Madish, attended the meeting.

In addition incumbent Mayor Terry L. Troutt and incumbent Treasurer John B. Lewkowicz showed up. City Clerk Leonard J. Folmar, who is not being challenged on the ballot, also participated.

All candidates involved in the election were notified of the "Meet the Candidates" program, according to William O'Brien, executive director of Civic Search Light.

Despite the poor turnout of candidates, O'Brien told the 100 residents in attendance: "I'm delighted you're here when there are so many things which you could be doing tonight."

The council candidates led the discussion with Coleman speaking first, in alphabetical order, after it was learned incumbent Fred Junior Block and challenger Gervazio Canajo were absent.

Coleman, a member of the 5-person Troutt Team plead for voter support.

"Unless we continue pushing forward and working together, Romulus could fail," he said. "I don't want to see that happen."

In the absence of Charlie Harris and Joseph Kochanoski, both challengers, Mrs. Lee, the president pro-tem of the Romulus City Council and another Troutt Team member, spoke.

"Two years ago I got involved in the election process for very definite reasons," she said. "One was lack of response.

"We've formed the department of responsive government, worked together, developed needed spirit to promote a clean city and seek improvements in the future. "I want the next campaign to be 'Romulus on the Move in '76.'"

Madish, another Troutt Team member, said: "I'm a member of the team because I've worked with these people several years, and want to work with them more."

"We have to keep taxes down, and I believe the administration has worked to create a better industrial tax base for Romulus to do that."

After learning challenger

Robert Martin was absent, incumbent Mayor Pro Tem Beverly McAnally, another Troutt Team member, was invited to speak.

Mrs. McAnally said: "I ran for the City Council out of great dissatisfaction and lack of pride, in what Romulus was."

"I've been proud of the progress this city has made these last two years and believe government must involve the citizen in the planning."

Incumbent Oakley, the only independent candidate present at the meeting, said: "I don't have any pet programs I want to push today. I've been on the City Council, and I've supported the programs I thought would benefit the majority of the people of Romulus."

Challenger Jimmie C. Rasberry was absent. Trumble, another Troutt Team member and an incumbent, asked for support of the team.

"We've completed several parks and are working on others," he said. "We've completed paving on 20 miles of roads, the police are effective and we're working toward a shopping center."

Folmar urged the voters to cast their ballots "because you are being asked to make one of the most crucial decisions you'll ever be asked."

"Local elections are the most significant elections to the voters."

"Every voter in Romulus should get out to vote." In the absence of his challenger, Franklin Ayers Sr., Lewkowicz gave a financial status report on the city.

"We've really tightened things up and it proves you run a more efficient city when you do that," Lewkowicz said. "We've gone through our second audit, and it shows no problems."

Troutt took the opportunity to outline his programs, and take a few jobs at Councilman James C. Stewart, who is seeking the mayoral post in the race.

Troutt added that among his campaign promises for the next two years will be constructing a shopping center in the city with the aid of a new legislative act

Officers get awards

Five officers of the Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol contingent in Romulus have received commendations and citations for their service to the community from Sheriff William Lucas.

Two officers, Robert Sheldon and Floyd Borders, received the highest department award — departmental citations — for their quick work in apprehending an armed robbery suspect.

The other three, Thomas Schmidtke, Rocco Daversa and Robert Lambka, received departmental commendations for their work above and beyond the call of duty.

Sheldon and Borders were honored for stopping an escaped armed robbery suspect despite the danger to themselves during a chase on the I-94 Freeway which ended near I-94 and Ecorse Road.

According to the citation certificates, both men were in a patrol car when they spotted the fleeing suspect on eastbound Ecorse Road near Merriman Road in Romulus.

During the ensuing chase, the officers ran the car onto eastbound I-94 and then pulled next to the vehicle in an effort to stop it. When the driver refused to pull over, one of the officers used a shotgun to shoot out the front tire, causing the suspect to lose control of his car, and crash into the median of the expressway.

The officers found a suspected weapon and money from the robbery in the vehicle.

Lucas honored the men for their quick work in the line of duty despite the risk to their own lives in the chase.

The three officers who received the commendations were honored for their off-duty participation in the break-up of a suspected stolen car ring in Wayne and Washtenaw counties.

which allows city to procure low-interest loan money for developers and maintaining the same millage rate.

"I will veto any bill proposed by the council to raise taxes," Troutt said. "There is no program in the city which will require the raising of taxes."

However, because of the "hold the line pledge" Troutt indicated that one apparent concern of the citizens — a full-time fire department — will not materialize during his time in office.

The arrest of the persons involved in the auto theft ring by Michigan State Police in Washtenaw County may have cleared up more than 200 stolen auto cases and a suspected 23 rapes, sheriff's deputies said.

The investigation into the matter is continuing.

Supervisor Gollwitzer explained that Mr. Hiltz could have enough people in the subdivision petition to reverse the one side of street parking but the majority of people wanted the parking restriction for reasons of school bus service, fire truck service and snow removal and probably it would be difficult to get enough signatures.

Kureth reported on SEMCOG stating that the "208 Program" objective is to have clean waters by 1985 and that public hearing will be held the next few years to get public input into the program. He also reported that the La France fire truck with Snorkel will be delivered Thursday, Oct. 16 to Fire Dept. No. 2.

Mrs. Howard asked about hall rental for a Brownie Troop meeting. Clerk Cullin told her to check with J. Clark of the Recreation Dept. concerning this.

Domen stated he got a statement from the County for cleaning of the McLaughrey Drain and asked if the township had cleaned there too. It was explained that the Township had cleaned part of the drain and it was thought the County cleaned around where I-275 is being constructed. The assessments were to be between $2.00 and $5.00. Public hearings on this are to be held Oct. 20 at the Wayne Co. Drain Commission office.

Motion Kureth, support Kelly, to adjourn. Meeting adjourned at 9:07 P.M.

ACLU supports sex bill

To the editor: On Oct. 28, the Michigan State Senate is scheduled to reconsider Senate Bill 399. This bill would remove the prohibition on the discussion of contraception in sex hygiene classes in those public schools in which the school board elects to "engage competent instructors and provide facilities and equipment for instruction in sex education, including contraception..." (SB 399).

The American Civil Liberties Union of Michigan (ACLU) believes that to prohibit the discussion of any issue offends the principle of free inquiry.

To prohibit teachers from answering their students' questions is to effectively curtail the freedom of this state's young people to learn. Currently, when a student asks a teacher, "What is contraception?", the teacher must reply, "I am forbidden by law from answering that question."

Fifty years ago, in the Scopes-

Monkey Trial case, ACLU defended the principle of free inquiry when the prohibited topic was evolution.

In the 1970s, in Michigan, the taboo subject is birth control and contraception. The rise in the rate of venereal disease and pregnancy among teen-agers indicates that this subject especially ought not to be banned and that students need help in answering their questions.

SB 399 acknowledges that the major responsibility in providing sex education and instilling moral values remains that of parents. The bill provides a conscience clause whereby students, upon request, may be excused from class without penalty.

The vote is expected to be close. ACLU of Michigan urges citizens to let their state senator know of their support of SB 399 and the principle of free inquiry in Michigan classrooms.

Howard L. Simon,
Executive Director,
ACLU of Michigan

WSU remains open

To the editor: Recent newspaper stories indicate that Wayne State University may be forced to close because of mounting fiscal problems. While it is true that Wayne State faces severe problems because of cutbacks in state support, it is not true that this university will close. We will continue to provide strong, quality programs in an extremely wide variety of disciplines and professions to Michigan residents, just as we have for the last 100 years.

Wayne State's presence as an established institution of higher education is assured for many, many years to come.

As president of Wayne State, I am dismayed that limited state dollars mean some curtailment in program offerings. We share these temporary hardships with our sister colleges and universities, and with other state agencies plagued by the continuing difficulties of lower car sales in a state heavily dependent on the automotive industry.

But these setbacks are temporary, and Wayne State already is planning for new and expanded educational programs to meet the demands of the people of our state which is committed to providing the best possible higher education for its people.

Let me set the record straight with some key facts:

1. This fall, Wayne State experienced the highest enrollment in its history. Our 37,500 students are at least 1,000 more than we have ever enrolled before.

2. Almost all of our schools and colleges shared in this increase, with our new College of Lifelong Learning enrolling more than 4,000 students, an astounding 1,000 percent increase in the last year.

3. Wayne State annually turns away thousands of qualified applicants for our outstanding programs in medicine, law, nursing, social work, business administration, psychology, chemistry, family and consumer resources, etc.

4. Our new Merit Scholarship Program has attracted to Wayne State more than 1,000 of the outstanding high school scholars in the state, many of these valedictorians and salutatorians of their graduating classes.

These facts are sufficient to tell Michigan residents that this strong and vital university will continue to provide the kind of education which is essential to the economic and social welfare of this state. But we are suffering from inadequate financing.

We do have people on lay-off; others are taking time off without pay. Please join with me in urging the state to provide all the resources it can for Wayne State, but be assured that the university, with its more than $100 million of annual operating support, will occupy a significant place in Michigan higher education through this century and beyond.

Friends write poetic tribute

It seems as though so long ago, I've seen you smile.
Remember when, we were as friends, oh yes it's been a while.
Then so quickly without reason you were taken suddenly away.

What can we do but think of you each moment of each day.
Words can't describe the man you were inside,
The way people laughed at the crazy things you did.
You lived the way you saw right,
Always in tune with life,
Without a fight, how could we help but not love you.
But we now all as one when
All things have all be done, will meet again
Because you see, Gordy, through out eternity,
You'll always be our life-long friend.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Four friends and neighbors of Gordon Scott wrote this poem and brought it to The Romulus Roman for publication this week. The 17-year-old Romulus resident, who was nicknamed String Bean, died this weekend.

Lawmakers are guy shy

By WES THORP
Panax Lansing Bureau

The months of controversy over the drafting of a teacher strike law seems to have made state lawmakers gun shy about education.

For eight long months the entire Legislature wrestled with how to develop a legal mechanism that would make collective bargaining between teachers and school boards smoother.

For that period of time—from January through August—they were in the middle of a problem which threatened to explode in their faces when classes resumed this fall.

Fortunately, the opening of public school classrooms around the state was very quiet with only a token number of teacher strikes.

Now that the teacher strike issue is, at least, temporarily taken care of and that there are many other problems pressing for their attention, state lawmakers don't have much enthusiasm for taking on any of the other problems which are pressing public schools.

Ask a state legislator about education, he gets visions of teachers, teacher unions, picket signs, school board members and unhappy parents.

But, one group seems to have been ignored during this long controversy which still is unresolved and that group is the students.

The rhetoric has centered around the collective bargaining problems of teachers and their employers, the local school boards.

Meanwhile, the State Department of Education continues to publish reams of reports which document the difficulties that thousands of youngsters are having in grasping the basic skills of reading, writing and arithmetic.

These kids leave school, many without and many with diplomas, with inadequate preparation for what they face once they leave school.

As this problem has become more acute over the years, more and more tax money has been spent on programs which were supposed to be a panacea to all sorts of learning problems.

For every educational problem, there is a program, with a staff which is supposed to help kids.

Millions of dollars later—that's millions from all three levels of government, local, state and federal—the problem still exists.

Many kids are just not getting a good education.

And this can snowball into all sorts of practical problems.

Without the ability to read and write and figure basic math, a person has a more difficult time supporting himself. Everybody knows what happens after that. If a person can't support himself, chance are, he will land on the welfare rolls which are ballooning to unmanageable proportions.

Poem tells of little girl

'Our Last Campout Together'

Juanita Riggins was a happy girl.
She was a friend and sister to us all.
We'd like to remember her as she was at the beginning of fall.

Our last campout together
was at Linden in the woods.
Everything was turning out just right.
The leaves were changing colors and the sun shone very bright.

We went for hikes down scenic trails and, for the fire, gathered logs.
We worked on making pom-poms and pretty towel dogs.

We all had jobs and worked in patrols preparing food and cleaning up.
Remember how Juanita was so helpful offering to wash our plates and cups?

In the evening we gathered round the fire singing songs and slowly beginning to tire.
Pat read us stories by a flashlight beam.
It was a good time—a happy scene

At lights out we lay cozy in our bags talking and whispering till late in the night ready to begin a new day soon as the sun came out bright.

When the weekend was over we headed for home anxious to tell of the things we had done.
A little rumpled and a bit in need of sleep, unaware that soon we would lose our friend and weep.

As we join hands in our friendship circle
we'll take a minute, our thoughts to share, and try to understand why she had to leave us when so many people care.

We know God wants some pretty flowers in heaven up above.
And surely our little friend is there now,
close within His love.

It's time to say goodbye, but not a time to cry.
We'll remember a happy, smiling girl,
that brought a little sunshine to the group.
A girl, that will be missed, by Elwell Girl Scout Troop—535

The Enterprise-Roman is committed to bringing the Bicentennial closer to our readers. And as part of that effort, a series, "The Michigan Big Story," will be published weekly. The 76-part series includes topics which contributed to the shaping and direction of the State of Michigan. The impact which this series is certain to have will provide a legacy for future generations of readers as they look back on what we did to celebrate the Bicentennial in Michigan, according to the Michigan Revolution Bicentennial Commission. The series is being prepared by the commission.

DETROIT (Dec. 5, 1848) — Eight residents of the City of Marshall have been fined $1,900 following a lengthy emotion-packed trial here in U.S. Circuit Court.

The case began almost a year ago when a group of Kentuckians led by Francis Troutman came to Marshall to return some escaped slaves to Kentucky.

The slaves, Adam Crosswhite and his family, escaped to Canada as a group of Marshall residents drove off the men from Kentucky.

Troutman and his group then pressed charges that resulted in today's verdict.

Troutman sees today's fine as a warning.

"The actions of this mob amounted to theft of property. Today's trial proves this. Now, maybe citizens of non-slaveholding states will no longer aid fugitive slaves and conceal them from their rightful owners," he said.

Charles T. Gorman, leader of the defendants, called today's decision shameful.

"If accepted, it would force all free men in free states to aid slaveowners in this despicable practice, under penalty of severe fines," he added.

Gorham indicated that Sen. Lewis Cass may have attempted to influence the jury in order to win southern support for his recent presidential bid.

Gorham said the Marshall residents will fight today's court decision.

"Too many of us in the North are opposed to slavery to force us to support the activities of those in slave owning states," he added.

Zacariah Chandler of Detroit paid the fine for the defendants.

Scout troops formed at Quirk Road School

Three Brownie Troops and two Junior Troops are now organized and holding their regular meetings each week at Quirk Road Elementary School.

Brownie Troop 354 is under the new leadership of Pauline Ostrowski, assisted by Rose Cartwright. They have 21 girls.

Brownie Troop 370 is led by Cathy Howard and Mrs. Andy Smith and has 30 girls.

Pat Twydell leads 26 Brownies of Troop 402 and is assisted by Linda Tarris.

Junior troops at Quirk School are No. 487 and No. 587. Mrs. Oakland Smith and Mrs. Danis Amador lead troop 487 with 24 girls. Leading the 26 Junior Scouts of Troop 587 are Norma Lee Wood and Pat LaMothe.

At North Junior High, Bonnie Pavelot has organized Cadette Troop 340, with 16 girls, and Joan Monfaton is troop service director for the groups.

Brownie Girl Scouts are geared to first, second and third graders who try to practice the three-Bs — be a discoverer, be a ready helper and be a friend maker — along with the Girl Scout promise.

Junior Scouts advance to badge work while practicing the promise and laws. With 32 different badges to earn in fourth, fifth and sixth grades. Juniors are busy learning to be of service to others as well as having fun with their troop.

Cadettes, too, earn badges, but as they grow to Junior High age, also are faced with challenges that will prepare them for adulthood. This too is accomplished in the spirit of friendship and fun.

All the troops are planning activities, field trips and campouts to insure that all the scouts have a fun-filled year.

SING A SONG—The Elwell Entertainers are continuing to spread their music throughout the Van Buren area, and capped off an active period last month by performing at the Bicentennial country fair, staged in Belleville. Under the direction of vocal music teacher Ann O'Beay, the group performed a medley of Bicentennial-oriented tunes. The group is a choir of selected sixth grade students who have performed locally for about a year.

Labels to buy gear

Edgemont Elementary School is in the midst of a special collection drive, aimed at obtaining greatly needed audio-visual equipment. The program, "Labels for Education," is sponsored by Campbell Soup Co. and offered to elementary schools both private and public.

Between now and Dec. 31 the school hopes to collect enough soup labels to earn a movie projector. Students are saving labels and are asking friends of the school to do the same.

Any Campbell's Soup or Beans labels count in the drive. More than 110 audio-visual and athletic equipment items are being offered through the program.

He receives college honor

A New Boston man, Mark G. Mittlestat of 23886 Merriman, was among 549 students named to the academic honors list at Ferris State College in Big Rapids for scholastic excellence during the summer quarter.

A student must earn at least a 3.25 grade average on a 4.0 basis and carry a full schedule of at least 14 credit hours to be named to the honors list.

Workers OK new employment contract

By HENRY CANTIN
Of The Eagle Staff

A new 1-year employment contract, providing for wage increases and improved fringe benefits, has been ratified by members of Local 79 of the Service Employees International Union AFL-CIO employed at Peoples Community Hospital Authority (PCHA) hospitals.

The new economic contract, which is retroactive to May 1 of this year, was ratified by a 412 to 75 vote. It provides a 33 cents per hour across-the-board increase in wages. The PCHA also will provide increased coverage in the eye glass program and will increase retirement benefits.

Current retirees will receive an additional 50 cents per month per increase for credited service up to a maximum of 30 years. Active employees will have their retirement boosted by $1 per month per year of credited service — from $7 to $8 up to a maximum of 30 years of service.

The existing sickness and accident benefit will be improved and hourly employees now will be eligible to participate in a tax deferred annuity program available only to employees working for non-profit institutions.

Another feature of the new agreement is the addition of a $2 deductible prescription drug rider to the existing Blue Cross-Blue Shield medical coverage.

"We were pleased to see the results of the balloting," said Karl S. Klicka, M.D., executive director of PCHA. "The negotiating has been difficult and prolonged, presumably a reflection of the difficult economic pressures on the authority and employees alike."

Bargaining began in February and last Tuesday's ratification of the economic contract was the third vote taken since April. According to Dr. Klicka, "the agreement represents a fair and equitable settlement consistent with the constraints imposed by the existing economic situation in the area."

The agreement will be brought to the Board of Directors meeting next Thursday for final approval.

The contract, when ratified, will cover all bargaining unit employees in the four PCHA hospitals — Annapolis in Wayne, Beyer Memorial in Ypsilanti, Outer Drive in Lincoln Park and Seaway in Trenton.

PCHA now has a fifth facility under construction, the Heritage Hospital, in Taylor. It is scheduled to be opened to accept patients in mid-1977.

Van Buren plans lowering of lake

Van Buren Township officials have set mid-November as the time when Belleville Lake will be lowered five feet for the winter season.

Van Buren Water Department Director David E. Wertz set Nov. 14 as the date when the township will open the flood gates in the Belleville Lake Dam to begin lowering the water.

The lowering will be undertaken gradually to avoid causing problems to lakeside residents which may be caused by a sudden drop in the water level.

The lake is lowered each year to prevent undue ice damage to lakeside property and as a flood prevention measure in the Huron River System.

Morris to fill county agency position

A veteran member of the Romulus Board of Education has been appointed to an important grant screening agency in the Detroit Metropolitan area.

Carl Morris, a member of the Romulus board and a member of the Wayne County Intermediate School District Board of Education has been appointed to the Detroit-Wayne County Criminal Justice System Coordinating Council — the agency which makes recommendations on grant allocations for criminal justice programs.

Morris was appointed to the post as the suburban school district representative to the council. His counterpart on the council is Theodore Jordan of the Detroit Board of Education.

"This is a real honor, particularly because it is the first time any educators have been appointed to the council," Morris said when he learned of the appointment. "It shows a change in philosophy on the council that educators do have an important role in combating crime, particularly during a child's formative years."

Morris added that the council is involved in planning of criminal justice systems, coordinating programs, overseeing the needs of the Detroit-Wayne County Juvenile Facilities Network, supervising drug control programs and overseeing the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration (LEAA) grants programs from the federal government.

"The addition of those who are familiar with the educational systems in the metropolitan region to the council will enable school systems to have more input into the planning and may enable them to receive additional grants to fulfill their roles in the communities," Morris said. "Educators have been on the firing line in the past because of criminal problems, but this offers them a chance to help solve the problems as they are best equipped."

"There are some important aspects of the council's program which are not handled so well by police agencies or the courts, but which can be handled in the schools," Morris was notified of his appointment to the council in a joint letter from Detroit Mayor Coleman A. Young and Roscoe Bobo, the chairman of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners.

In the letter, the two wrote: "Your participation as a member of this coordinating council will insure overall coordinating and planning for an improved criminal justice system in the Detroit-Wayne County Area."

Morris has been a member of the Romulus Board for more than 20 years and served as the board president last year.

Save money in your attic this winter.

Insulate!

At the direction of the Michigan Public Service Commission, Michigan Consolidated is again offering a low-cost home ceiling insulation program designed to conserve Natural Gas and hold down heating costs.

Last year, nearly 42,400 Michigan Consolidated customers installed ceiling insulation, saving over one billion cubic feet of Natural Gas, and cut their home heating costs by up to 17%.

These results were gratifying indeed. Enough Natural Gas was conserved to heat over 7,600 additional homes this winter.

If you still haven't taken advantage of this easy, low-cost program, now's the time to act. Many homeowners can install insulation themselves for about $125. Our free handbook tells you how. Get your copy at any Michigan Consolidated Business Office, most building supply outlets or write or call us.

Or, we can have the job done for you by one of our participating subcontractors and add the cost to your monthly gas bills. The cost? About $250 for homes with less than 1,000 sq. ft. of ceiling area. You can pay cash. Or, you can pay over an extended period at an interest rate of 1% monthly on the unpaid balance. (ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE OF 12%.)

So why not save money in your attic this winter with our low-cost ceiling insulation program? You'll be cutting your heating costs up to 17% and helping our country conserve its Natural Gas supplies, too.

Show, sale set

Some 500 state residents, known as Michigan Handicrafters, will be displaying their wares at a special sale and show Oct. 27-Nov. 2 at the Southland Center in Taylor.

Staged by the Sororist Club of Dearborn, the sale is by members of the Vocational Rehabilitation Services' Homebound Program for handicapped persons.

The handicrafts on sale will include ceramic painting, jewelry, toys, knitting and crocheting.

Each article sold will return a 100 percent profit to its creator, a spokesman for the club said.

A sale by the statewide participants is staged monthly and a warehouse open daily is in Lansing.

The club buys the supplies and provides the training for the handicapped involved in the Homebound Program, which started as a pilot project in the Upper Peninsula in 1955 and expanded to include the entire state in 1962.

RESOLUTION 75-744

WHEREAS: House Bill No. 5527 which abolishes the present voluntary association of municipalities, commonly known as the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCOG) and replaces it with a mandatory regional planning and development agency for the Counties of Livingston, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, St. Clair, Washtenaw and Wayne and all communities located within those counties, has been introduced into the Michigan Legislature for action thereon proposing an effective date of July 4, 1976; and WHEREAS, House Bill No. 5527 purports to abolish the present voluntary association of local municipalities within the Detroit Metropolitan area known as SEMCOG upon the basis that as SEMCOG is presently constituted, it lacks legal authority to compel local municipalities and counties to follow a comprehensive regional development plan and to compel municipalities to provide municipal services on a regional or under a metropolitan form of government; and

WHEREAS, House Bill No. 5527 would make the proposed Southeast Michigan Planning and Development Agency the sole and only the planning agency for the affected counties and their local municipalities would give that agency sole responsibility to dictate how Southeastern Michigan would be developed with respect to any and all projects which have any regional significance of effect, irrespective of whether such development were acceptable to or desired by local municipalities; and

WHEREAS, House Bill No. 5527 would require all local governments to submit all their plans and projects to the proposed Southeast Michigan Planning and Development Agency for approval on the basis that such projects and plans were consistent with regional objectives as established by that agency and that upon failure to establish consistency, such local projects and plans would be by statute unable to be implemented; and

WHEREAS, One of the major statutory duties of the proposed Southeast Michigan Planning and Development Agency under House Bill No. 5527 will be to act as a regional charter study commission to bring before the State Legislature a charter for regional or metropolitan form of government involving all the local municipalities within the aforescribed counties; and

WHEREAS: The governing body of the proposed Southeast Michigan Planning and Development Agency under House Bill No. 5527 will be composed primarily of county level employees with local municipalities have little, if any, representation on that agency and subsequently little input and influence with respect to the recommendations to be made in the State Legislature regarding the form and feasibility of a metropolitan government involving Southeastern Michigan; and

WHEREAS: The provisions of House Bill No. 5527 are directly contra to the governmental principles under which the City of Romulus has operated since its formation as a Home Rule City and completely contra to the principles of government under which all local communities in Southeastern Michigan have operated under as local municipalities; and

WHEREAS: House Bill No. 5527, being contra to the concept of Home Rule Government, is contra to the will and expression of the people of Southeastern Michigan which have consistently voted and supported the concept of Home Rule Government; and

WHEREAS: House Bill No. 5527 has as its objective and is the first step towards the formation of a metropolitan or regional form of government for Southeast Michigan and attempts to put into effect a metropolitan form of government in opposition to the wishes of the public which recently voted in opposition to regional or metropolitan government in turning down the proposal of Wayne County to become a Home Rule County Government.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That the City of Romulus hereby officially states its opposition to House Bill No. 5527 for the reasons stated previously in this Resolution; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the City of Romulus urges its neighboring and fellow communities in Southeastern Michigan to formally oppose House Bill No. 5527; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED: That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to all neighboring communities in Southeastern Michigan and to State Senator William Faust, State Representatives Edward Mahalak and Gary Owen, Governor William Milliken, Representatives Ryan and Mastin, authors of and introducers of House Bill No. 5527. Roll call vote showing: Ayes - Lee, Stewart, Trumble, Oakley, Block, Coleman, McAnally. Nays - None. Motion carried unanimously.

9c. No Action.

10. No Action.

He is Joe Zuchter, the holder of a master of social work degree from the University of Michigan. The 25-year-old social worker will be engaging in counseling of groups and individuals including families, adults and younger persons.

"I got into this field because I felt I could work effectively with people, but needed training in school to help them meet their needs," Zuchter said. "I've been concerned with people's needs and believe social work is one means to meet them."

While on the staff at the Help Center, Zuchter will be involved with the center's programs which include counseling, drug treatment, job placement, crisis intervention, senior citizens' services and information and referral.

Zuchter comes from the University of Michigan where he had training placements in the Eastern Michigan University counseling center and the Providence Hospital Mental Health Clinic in Southfield.

RESEARCH SUBJECTS—A local Belleville Business helped the second grade at the Quirk Road Elementary School learn more about insects at the end of a recent science unit. Joel Layne from B'Wana Don's Pet Store in the Lakewood Shopping Center brought in several live insects and reptiles for the children's perusal. Layne shows Steve Dougherty and Susan Domen a golden skink. Other animals included an iguana, a cuba anoles, a Mexican red-legged tarantula and a black velvet tarantula. Neither of the spiders were poisonous.

Belleville upset bid fails

Trenton tramples Tigers, 42-7

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

Undefeated Trenton showed Belleville why it is considered the class of the Suburban 8 Conference football league this season. Striking for 22 first half points, the Trojans marched over Belleville 42-7 to spoil Belleville High's festivities on a shivering Friday night. "Any time, any team beats you the way Trenton did us you have to be disappointed," said Belleville Coach Pat Stokes. "However, we knew that they are an excellent team. We knew it would be difficult stopping them, but we also hoped to give them a better game than we did."

Stokes pinpointed the team's demise on "execution." "We didn't execute well both ways and that's what are problem was," he added.

The loss dipped Belleville's conference record to 3-2, leaving them in a 2-way tie for third with Edsel Ford. The two teams will meet 3:30 p.m. on Friday to decide which will remain in that lofty spot. The Dearbornites are the host for the game.

Kevin Barnes' 3-yard touchdown run with four minutes left in the game helped Belleville to avert the shutout.

It was no contest the rest of the way. Belleville's thorn was senior Trenton quarterback Greg Castignola who passed for three touchdowns and masterminded the Trojan offense.

Castignola hit on TD passes of 32, 34 and nine yards and picked up 103 yards from his aerial attack to go along with his team's 353 yards on the ground for a hefty total of 456.

Belleville countered with 158 total yards, 98 on the ground and 56 in the air. The Tigers lost the battle of first downs, 15-9. Barnes wound up as Belleville's leading rusher as he gained 34 yards in 12 carries. Quarterback Dan Scripser was on target for nine of 25 passes for 25 yards. Belleville looked good in the first quarter as the Tigers managed to march to the Trojan 18-yard line before handling the ball over on downs.

TROJANS AHEAD — Belleville's offense had its problems Friday night as undefeated Trenton stopped the Tigers in their tracks. Here, Belleville quarterback Dan Scripser (10) hands off to Scott Jenks (34) who is greeted by a Trojan wall. Belleville's hopes of an upset ended in a 42-7 disaster which left the Tigers with a 3-2 league record and in a tie for third place with Edsel Ford.

Huron harriers post 1st unbeaten season

No matter what happened last night at the Huron Conference Cross Country Meet, New Boston Huron runners have carved out for themselves a page in the school's history.

Coach Mike Mathews' harriers defeated Airport 25-30 for a perfect 8-0 overall record in the league and also established themselves as the first undefeated team in any sport at the high school.

"This season isn't over by any long shot," said Mathews, "but these kids have something no other Huron team has been able to do in the past. They have an undefeated season."

"They've worked hard and the results show. We're proud and I know the school also is proud of them."

Huron also snapped Airport's 15 dual meet winning streak and the two league rivals will join some 15 others on Saturday to contest the regional championships.

Huron is host for the regionals which will be staged beginning at 10 a.m. at Willow Metro Park, the Chiefs' home base.

The top three teams from each regional will advance to the state finals to be held a week later. Also, the top 10 runners, excluding those who are members of the top three teams, also will be able to compete for the state crown.

Airport's Bob Malone set the pace against the Chiefs as he rounded the 3-mile course in a respectable 15:43. Huron monopolized the fourth through seventh positions as Dan Bilbrey led the pack with a 16:17.

Following Bilbrey to the wire were Bob Tillston (16:28), Gene Reitz (16:28), Tim Schuman (16:33) and Dave Bennett (17:46).

On Saturday, Huron took part in the Downriver Invitational held at Elizabeth Park and finished third behind arch-rival, Airport, and the champ, Harper Woods Bishop Gallagher.

Bishop Gallagher's winning total time was 83:58, while Airport was second with 84:50, followed by the Chiefs who were clocked in 85:53.

The course, slowed by rains, was slippery and hazardous.

Reitz had the best clocking for the Chiefs, hitting the wire in ninth with a 17:05. Bilbrey was 11th in 17:10, and he was trailed by Tillston, 13th (17:15); Tim Schuman, 16th (17:18) and Bennett, 20th (17:30).

Ypsi dominates Belleville relays

Claiming six of the seven eight events, Ypsilanti dominated the second running of the Belleville Relays.

The newly-crowned champ had a 10-point spread between them and the closest challenger, Westland John Glenn. The winner amassed 38 points to Glenn's 28, followed by Wayne and Taylor Kennedy with 22 each, and Belleville with 14.

Wayne won the 200-yard freestyle relay with Sandy Stano, Tracey Batterson, Sandy Parker and Sandy Baran who were clocked in a meet record time of two minutes even.

John Glenn's diving dual of Julie Winter and Kathy Mahakian combined for 155 points, good enough for the first place medals.

Belleville gals dunk Kennedy

Taking seven of 11 first places, Belleville crushed Taylor Kennedy 49-34 in a girls' dual swimming meet.

The Tigers also set a record in the 400-yard freestyle relay as Dru Stroble, Karen McDermitt, Dona Keyser and Jana Harris were clocked in the winning time of 4:25.8.

Miss Keyser also was the winner for the 200-yard freestyle as she led teammate McDermitt to the finish. The winner was clocked in 2:16.7.

Miss Stroble led a Belleville sweep in diving as she amassed a total of 147.45 points. Laurie Saldana was runnerup with 109.30 while Cindy Dhrash finished third with a 108.35 total.

TIGER ON THE LOOSE — With teammate Chuck Brezeale (75) providing the blocking, Rich Ivan (24) picks up some yardage against a formidable Trenton defense Friday night. Moments like these were rare for the Belleville ballcarriers who couldn't generate enough offense against the undefeated Trojans. Belleville succumbed 42-7 in their Suburban 8 Conference match.

Romulus runners win big

Romulus runners hit a winning pace against Dearborn Heights Robichaud as Coach Al Wilkerson's Eagles flew past their rivals 21-38.

"We looked good and our team was healthy for the first time in a long time," Wilkerson explained.

Wendall Buckley led the pack as he covered the 3-mile course in 17:45 to give the Eagles a first place.

Buckley's teammates Jeff Warren and Joe Schieda followed in third and fourth, respectively, with 18:10 and 18:11 performances.

Big time wrestling will be coming to Romulus on Nov. 12 to help the high school's track program. The proceeds of the star-studded program will help purchase equipment for the team.

The main event will be a USA Tag Team Championship bout with "Money Man" Hank James and El Braserio challenging the present NWA World Tag Team champs, the Islanders from Hilo, Hawaii.

In other matches, Kurt Von Hess will tangle with Lou Klein, Dr. X will take on Mike Wayne and in an exciting girls' match, Tara Taylor will meet Kathy McCoy.

Tickets can be purchased for $3 each from any member of the Romulus cross country and track teams. They also can be purchased by mail. Make checks payable to Romulus High School, C/O Al Wilkerson, 9650 Wayne Rd., Romulus 48174.

RON PICHAN

Grid game to feature area star

Ron Pichan, former All-Area griddier from New Boston High, will lead the Oakland Arrows against the Flint Sabers in the Minor League Super Bowl at Pontiac Stadium. The game is scheduled for 7:30 p.m., Sat. Nov. 1. The Arrows earned the right to challenge the Sabers for the Super Bowl title by winning the Lakes Division title earlier in the season. The Sabers will represent the Capital Division of the Midwest Football League. Pichan was a 1963 Associated Newspapers' All-Area choice who went on to play his college ball at Hillsdale before signing with the Oakland Arrows, nee the Pontiac Arrows.

North hands Romulus 1st jr. high grid loss

Romulus Junior High bounced back from its first football loss of the season to take their frustrations out on O.W. Best of Dearborn Heights. The previously undefeated but tied upon Romulus gridders shut out Best 22-0 to pad their overall record on the season to 3-1-1 won-lost-tied. John Beattie scored the first Romulus touchdown as he scampered into the end zone from 4-yards out and Darryl Lewis's 2-point conversion made it an 8-0 ball game. Romulus had possession of the ball most of the first quarter as Shawn Green, Vince Bean, Contel Hayden and Rob Knight each recovered fumbled. Lewis hooked up with Bean on a 38-yard pass-run touchdown play for Romulus's next score while the came combination also clicked on a 11-yarder. Belleville North handed Romulus its first loss of the season 16-8. North built up a 16-0 lead before their rivals got on the board. Contel Hayden's 9-yard touchdown run and Wayne Jones's 2-point conversion produced the losers only points of the game.

Cougars sweep 3 wins

It may have been a nuisance to some teams, but Saturday's rains washed away Belleville Cougars' cares. The Cougars swept three games from the Westland Rockets as the Cougar Freshmen shutout their rivals 13-0, and the Junior Varsity rolled to a 12-6 victory while the Varsity posted a 13-6 triumph. An early Rocket fumble recovered by Belleville's Artie Messer set up the Freshmen's first touchdown. Quarterback Richie Umin came up with an option and flipped the ball to Jim Daniels who scooted 30-yards for Belleville's initial score. The Cougars made it a 7-0 ball game when Sam Villa and Raymond Duncan combined on a pass for the conversion. (Conversions by running or passing are counted as one point in little league football). Another Rocket miscue led to the Cougars' second score. The Westlanders attempted a lateral pass which missed its mark and was pounced on by Gary LeBlanc. On the third play from scrimmage, Villa found Ray Duncan opened in the end zone and connected on a 17-yard TD pass.

Meanwhile, the Junior Varsity had its problems shaking loose a victory from a stubborn Rocket ball club. The Rockets were on the scoreboard first and built up a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. Belleville counter-attacked in the second quarter with a sustained drive engineered by quarterback Dave LeBlanc who moved the Cougars from midfield to the 6-yard line where he handed off to John Mercurio who crashed through the Rocket defenses for a touchdown. Trailing 7-6, Belleville came up with a superb third quarter play that turned the tide in its favor. LeBlanc and Mike Martin teamed up on a 54-yard pass and run combination which resulted in the decisive touchdown. Belleville's Varsity Unit made it a clean sweep by capitalizing on Rocket turnovers. Mark Daroci got the Cougars moving on a 39-yard touchdown sprint which gave the local gridders the lead. It was the defense that scored what proved to be the winning touchdown. Tim Ralls snatched a Rocket pass and made it back to the 25-yard line where Daroci, on the second play from scrimmage, went off tackle and into the Westland end zone. Ralls' handoff to John Verrot was good for the extra point and gave the Cougars a 13-0 margin to defend.

Belleville, Edsel grid game 3:30

It's unusual, but it's a fact: the Belleville High and Edsel Ford football game on Friday will be played at 3:30 p.m. "The reason for the early hour is to assure us that the game will be completed before dark sets in," explained Harry Hidenfelter, Belleville High athletic director. "Edsel doesn't have lighting facilities, so we're going to have to start early. I just didn't want fans to miss out on the action," Hidenfelter added. The two teams will be playing for third place. Each sport 3-2 Suburban 8 Conference records.

The gang's all here.

When customers come looking for you, why play hard to get?

Some prospects may come looking in the Yellow Pages just for you. Maybe because a satisfied customer recommended you or because they saw your other advertising, or just passed by your place of business and liked what they saw.

Other prospects may be looking for anyone. They may be newcomers who don't know the area, or people with an emergency buying problem. Or maybe they're dissatisfied with people they're now doing business with. Whatever the reasons, don't keep your business a secret. Tell customers everything they need to know to make it easy to buy from you. Remember, when their fingers do the walking, it's a snap (for you, too!)

Moomaw-Niemann

Couple wed in candlelight rite

A honeymoon for one week in the New England states followed the Sept. 6 wedding of Debra E. Niemann and John D. Moomaw, both of Romulus. The newlyweds have since taken up residence at 36514 Wick Road, Romulus.

In a 6 p.m. ceremony at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in New Boston, the young couple exchanged nuptial vows and wedding bands before The Rev. Daniel Richert. Candlelight set the mood as friends of the bride, Richard Brown and Steve O'Neill played guitar music and Mrs. Daniel Richert, the organ.

Some 150 relatives and friends witnessed the rite which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Niemann of 15212 Huron River Dr., Romulus, and the son of Mr. and Mrs.

Clyde Moomaw of 7292 Burton, Romulus.

Debra chose for her wedding day a white candlelight satin gown created with a V-neckline, long full sleeves and a gathered skirt which drifted into a chapel sweep. Tiny pearl buttons formed a row from the "V" to the fitted waistline.

A fingertip veil edged in wide lace was caught to a pearl-studded crescent cap and a cascade bouquet of pink roses, white carnations, blue bachelor buttons, yellow daisies and white mums and baby's breath completed her bridal finery.

Preceding the bride and her father to the altar were Denise Quiel of Romulus who was maid of honor and Kathy Wertz of Romulus, a sister; and Susan Morris of Bradenton, Fla., who were bridesmaids.

The trio was gownned in identical mint green polyester crepe frocks with green and white plaid cape-like bolero jackets. Their flowers, the same variety as the bride's, were arranged in white baskets.

Albert Moomaw of Romulus was his brother's best man and Paul Robakiewicz and Pat Markus, both of Romulus, were groomsmen.

Mrs. Niemann wore for her daughter's wedding a pink lace A-line formal to which she added a corsage of pink rosebuds and white carnations. A similar corsage in yellow and white was presented to Mrs. Moomaw who chose to wear a pale green jacket-dress ensemble for the occasion.

The UAW Hall in Flat Rock was reserved for the reception which followed.

Some 200 guests attended.

The newlywed Moomaws are Romulus High School graduates of 1972. She currently is working as a secretary for Florists' Transworld Delivery Assoc. in Southfield and he as a mechanic for Seese Shell in Romulus. The bridegroom also served with the U. S. Army for two years, being discharged this past July.

Belleville librarian guest of Study Club

The Women's Study Club of Belleville held its Oct. 8 meeting at the Lemontree clubhouse where Mrs. Don White, president, conducted the business session. The resignation of Mrs. Don Blend, a member of 30 years standing, was recognized with an honorary membership award. Mrs. Blend, a past president, has held every office and served on a number of committees during her association with the club.

Several dates of importance were announced; the Girlstown Harvest Day at Loch Rio in Belleville for one. Hours for visits by state clubs will be 1 to 3 p.m. The General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC) Great Lakes Conference will be held Nov. 10 and 11 in Kalamazoo. The conference comprises the states of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Ohio as well as the city of Toronto, Ont.

The pending South-eastern District Convention of Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs was discussed, the Oct. 15 meeting at Weber's in Ann Arbor to have been attended by Mrs. Don White, Mrs. John Tator and Mrs. Pat Baughman.

The club also decided to support the GFWC's drive to have a special commemorative stamp issued honoring Joseph E. Maddy's National Music Camp at Interlochen.

Twenty-six members and one guest were present to hear Mrs. Kenneth McClatchey, head librarian at the Fred C. Fischer Library, speak on "The Library's Role in the Bicentennial." She stressed the many services which the library provides and discussed the great wealth of material available for the Bicentennial. Among books of interest to area history buffs is "The History of Belleville" by Dr. Samuel Robbe. Only one book is available, though, and Mrs. McClatchey is interested in obtaining more if anyone cares to donate a copy.

The education committee, Mrs. Adger Wall, chairman; Mrs. Donald Wright, Mrs. Richard Hamilton and Mrs. Bernard Boyd were in charge of the evening program as well as the refreshments which followed.

Acie Smith's 60th wedding date observed

An open house marking the 60th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Acie H. Smith of New Boston was held Oct. 5 at their home at 18524 Huron River Drive. The couple, who married Oct. 7, 1915 in Cape Girardeau, Mo., was honored by their three children, Wilson W. Smith of Fresno, Calif., Harold A. Smith of Plymouth and Lillie M. Burger of Belleville.

About 25 relatives attended the dessert reception which featured a 3-tiered wedding cake and ice cream.

Former residents of Taylor, the Smiths moved to New Boston six years ago. Besides their three children there are eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren to be counted.

Mr. Smith, who is retired from Solvay Process in Delray, enjoys spending his leisure time working in his flower garden and lawn. His wife's interests lie in crocheting and sewing.

HV Garden Club tours UM gardens

Twenty-three members and two guests of the Huron Valley Garden Club met Oct. 6 at Victory Park to travel together to Howard Johnson's in Ann Arbor for brunch. Following the meal, Mrs. William Hennells, president, opened the business meeting at which the group voted to purchase chrysanthemums to be placed around the city's planter.

The group then drove to the Matthaei Botanical Gardens of the University of Michigan (UM) where they toured the tropical and temperate houses and also the trails.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 3 in the administration building of the Van Buren School system. Richard Dokas, a high school biology teacher, will speak on ferns.

Enroute to Regina, Sask. they stopped at Stockton, Ill. and spent a couple of days with their son, Jack and wife. Then they continued on west through the Black Hills and Custer, S.D. to Regina where they attended their grandson, Mark Malloy's graduation from the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Academy.

At Shellbrook, Sask., they visited Mr. Graham's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hislop and their family for a week. Back to Winnipeg, Manitoba, they spent a week with their daughter, Grace and husband and enjoyed seeing a new great-granddaughter, Nicole Grace Neale, who was born Sept. 25.

Road, were held Oct. 13 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Towler of Ann Arbor and Jack and Carla Dummman of Thiensville, Wisc. Heidi Lee's uncle, The Rev. Scott Dummman of Megeoun, Wisc. preached the sermon and conducted the service. Following the service, the baby's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Raymond, hosted a dinner at The Lemontree clubhouse for 100 relatives who came from Milwaukee, Megeoun and Thiensville, Wisc., St. Petersburg, Fla., Dearborn Heights, Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Dexter, Milford, New Hudson, Ontario and Belleville.

Among the relatives present were the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carol Dummman of Milwaukee, Wisc., and the Donald Raymonds of Roland Street and great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. ## Dessert smorgasbord, whist contest on October Home Arts Club calendar

It was a fun evening for members of the Home Arts Club Oct. 13 as they met for their annual fall smorgasbord. In place of the traditional dinner, though, the committee decided to concentrate strictly on desserts. And if there were any weight watchers in the group, it was an evening of strong resistance because the women outdid themselves in their variety of dishes.

Avis White and her program committee, Jean

Ferguson, Lois Wilson and Audrey Tabor, were in charge of the event and used a centerpiece of colorful leaves and a jack-o-lantern to set a Halloween mood.

Prior to refreshments, Mildred Baker, president, conducted a brief business meeting at which 22 members answered roll call. Guests for the evening were Charlene Tessmer, Agnes Elliott, Mary Lou Vancleve, Rita Kosin and Thelma Tindall.

Announcements made concerned two upcoming Belleville area productions, the first a play by Sharon Matthews for "Sir Slob and the Princess" which will have The Players on stage Oct. 25 for two children's matinees. Virginia Turney explained that the Belleville High School play "Arsenic and Old Lace" was seeking patrons to help defray the cost of the presentation. Anyone wishing may donate $3 to Belleville High Productions, thereby having his name listed in the program as a patron. Tax deductible, checks may be sent to the Patrons Committee, Belleville High School, 501 W. Columbia Ave., Belleville 48111. The all-school comedy is set for Nov. 13, 14 and 15 and patrons' checks must be received by Oct. 26 in order to meet the printer's schedule.

The program for the Nov. 10 meeting, "Crafts for Christmas," will be a demonstration of silk screening by Dave Medley, an art teacher at South Junior High School. Members will learn how to make their own holiday cards and stationery.

A progressive "court" whist tournament concluded the evening with awards being won by Lee Smith, Vera Nolf, Virginia Turney, Muriel Wolfe, Lois Wilson, Charlotte Price, Mary Lou Vancleve and Agnes Elliott.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN SIEDHOFF

Emmanuel Lutheran Church chosen for wedding site

In an autumn ceremony at Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Ypsilanti, Carol Ann Sanders of Belleville became the bride of John Siedhoff of Ypsilanti.

Pastor Carl Leach conducted the 6 p.m. rite before an altar graced with bouquets of aqua and white gladiolas which carried out the color scheme of the wedding. Organist was Jerry Hubbard.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Sanders of 45081 Willis Road, Belleville, was given in marriage by her father. She walked up the aisle carrying a bouquet of red and pink sweetheart roses and baby's breath tied with white lace streamers.

designed with a high neckline and long sleeves both banded in lace. The nylon dress featured a high-rise waistline and chapel train also edged in lace. A Juliet cap secured her illusion veil which was cut in mid-back length.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Thomas Bolton, came from Loganville, Ga. to serve as matron of honor. Her floor-length aqua gown, trimmed in ivory lace, was topped with a short jacket. Aqua, purple and blue carnations were used to form her bouquet.

The bridegroom, the son of John Siedhoff of Belleville and Mrs. Marion Siedhoff of Southfield, asked his brother, Roy, to serve as best man. The bride's brother, Chris Sanders of Ypsilanti, was the only usher.

At the reception, which followed in the VFW Hall on Bemis Road, the bride's mother greeted the 75 guests in a formal gown of pink floral print with a matching coat while Mrs. Siedhoff, the bridegroom's mother, received in a jacketdress of coral rose. Both were presented with corsages of yellow daisies, pink carnations and red roses.

After a week's honeymoon in Ohio, the newlyweds took up residence at 45081 Willis Road, Belleville. Both are graduates of Belleville High School.

So we didn't use your pictures? Here's why

We've had many questions (often irate) as to why we didn't use a picture that was submitted with a story.

First off, in accepting any snapshot we are really placing ourselves "on the spot" since amateur photography just doesn't reproduce well at all. Quite often, though, we take your offerings if they are good pictures and then keep our fingers crossed that our cameraman can work wonders.

And speaking of our cameraman, who's one Ken Peterson, he really DOES knock himself out attempting to blow up or reduce the photos we surprise him with each week. Color is especially hard to work with but Ken always shoots and re-shoots until he has what he thinks will come out clearly in the paper.

We ARE willing to accept black and white polaroids but please try to remember a few simple suggestions (1) Focus in on your subject as closely as possible; forget the walls, floor, ceiling and surroundings. (2) Forget full-length body shots and concentrate from the waist on up (3) Don't get too many people in one photo; three is usually just right. (4) In using props in pictures (such as for bazaars, etc), please don't try to get every single object in. Use one particular item and zero in closely on that. Otherwise your picture will look as though you're advertising a rummage sale. (5) Lastly, please DO bring in the pictures you have. We will look them over and, if at all possible, will use them if the afore-mentioned steps have been observed.

We're truly sorry that we've been unable to use so many photos in the past but we think you'll understand now just why they're sometimes "left in the basket."

Meat prices up the least

In 1974 the average price for all foods went up 14.2 percent while meat alone increased only 2.4 percent. For 1975 food prices are expected to increase an estimated 10 to 15 percent while meat prices are predicted to increase only 6 percent, with pork and poultry climbing faster than beef.

What's a nice skier like you doing at a place like Timberlee...

for honest to goodness skiing

I like to ski and that's what I do at Timberlee.

Their 16 slopes offer a variety of challenges or just relaxing skiing. Chair lifts, poma-lift and a rope tow for beginners will get you to the top. There's a pro shop for rental and repairs. For apres-ski, I stay at Sun Perch overlooking the slopes. There's a choice of two bedroom apartments or studios with complete kitchens, linens and modern designer furnishings. Regular motel accommodations are available too. At the Hill House, it's dinner and lunch at the Gold Brick Saloon or the Farmer's Daughter Cafeteria. You don't have to worry about fancy duds and a pre-planned carnival atmosphere. We make our own fun at Timberlee. I'm a meat and potatoes man and I like my skiing the same way.

Methodist Women set 'Bell Ringer Bazaar'

The "Bell Ringer Bazaar" is the label put on this year's annual fall event sponsored by the United Methodist Women of the First United Methodist Church of Belleville.

The event, scheduled for Nov. 6, is being chaired by Barbara Doty and Helen White. The 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. festivities will include a luncheon from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. as well as a spaghetti supper starting at 5 p.m. Juanita Akers is in charge of luncheon arrangements while the Early Risers, Come Doubles and Adult Fellowship groups are combining their efforts for the supper.

For those interested in getting out for lunch, the menu will consist of sloppy joes, homemade bean soup, salad, cake and beverage.

Other highlights of the bazaar will be a special children's booth with Donette Miller as chairman and an arts and crafts booth featuring handmade stuffed toys being readied by the Morning Circle members with Sally Jones chairman.

Vera Nolff and the Afternoon Circle are in charge of the baked goods counter; Blance Atyeo and the Afternoon Circle, the fancywork, needlework and pillow booth; and Bea Boldt and Betty Savage and the Evening Circle gathering items for the attic treasures trove.

A book nook will be manned by Marian Irwin; plants by Rose Vincent and cards by Esther Deering.

Eunice Kause is planning the bazaar decorations and publicity is being handled by Mrs. Doty, Mrs. White and Peggy Chizmar. Spring Arthur is chairman of the Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship's part in the festivities.

The public is invited to attend the day-long program which committee members are hoping will keep the cash registers ringing and the proceeds plentiful.

The director's word is final

By DIANA COOPER
Of The Players Staff

"The rear end of a horse! — now wait a minute, just because I —" As the rest of The Players howled with laughter, the directors dutifully suppressed any hint of mirth. Coaxing reluctant actors into occasionally accepting an absurd role is part and parcel of the shared directors' task taken on by Sharon Mathews and Judy Adams.

Besides handling auditions and final casting for "Sir Slob and the Princess," they continue to coordinate the diverse skills of other behind-the-scenes jobs of stage manager, costume designer and the set and props committees. But theirs is the final word.

As the cardinal rule of all theatre states, "The play belongs to the director(s)". Yet, unlike the jealously guarded role of the typical director(s), (and due to the relative simplicity of a children's play) each of these agreeable gals has heartily welcomed suggestions from other cast members and staff. So, naturally, the cast and crew toss forth endless tidbits as to mood motivation or voice shading, and all manner of advice — serious and absurd — for "developing" the roles of each character.

Despite pressing personal schedules of both Judy and Sharon, (which accounts for the unusual duality of this director's job) it is their constant chore to make keen-eyed observations and give patient encouragement to bring out the best performance of each cast member.

Especially now, with showtime mere days away, the pace is quickened. A professional diplomat would envy the calm, sure handling of understandably nervous actors.

"Are you going to allow his upstaging me, when...?" and "Any louder and I'm going to get laryngitis!" Soothingly, but firmly, both women work to perfect the "blocking" (the dialogue timing and continuous positioning of on-stage actors). Getting it all together is their job, as Judy and Sharon, co-directors, carry on the revered show tradition, "The show must go on!"

(Editor's note: This is the fourth in a series of articles being written by Diana Cooper of The Players staff. Her articles deal with the various phases of the theatre — from the behind-the-scenes activities to the person in the spotlight. She hopes to furnish an insight to what motivates a person to join a thespian's group as well as what is involved once that person is committed.)

Senior Citizens prepare costumes for Halloween

The regular business meeting of Romulus Senior Citizens Club No. 1 was held Oct. 14 at the VFW Hall. The by-laws discussion was tabled until the November meeting.

The potluck luncheon planned for Oct. 28 also will be the group's annual Halloween party and prizes will be awarded for the best costumes. Mayor Terry Troutt will be among the guest speakers.

The trip to the Toledo Art Museum and Southwyck Shopping Mall ended on rather a sad note when Marian Gyor fell and broke her arm in two places as the group arrived for dinner at the Hathaway House in Blissfield. Mrs. Gyor was rushed to Adrian for treatment while her fellow members awaited her return. She now is convalescing at home.

The membership is reminded that bowling competition is held at 10 a.m. each Monday and sewing sessions at 1 p.m. each Thursday.

Both libraries receive new fall shipments

Both the Belleville and Romulus libraries have received new shipments of books for the fall and winter season and have everything from archeology to zoology, antipasto to zabaglione, asters to zinnias and Anglicism to Zionism to read about in the non-fiction sections of their buildings.

For that breather from reality there's every character from the aristocrat to the zany from which to choose. Fiction for every whim can be found alphabetized by authors along the shelves and includes Baker's American wit and humor and Deighton's foreign intrigue. Poetry your cup of tea? ## Merchants thanked for goods

A class at Eastern Michigan University wants to thank two area merchants for their cooperation in helping put on a party for patients at the Ypsilanti State Hospital.
Sherry Zumbro, spokesman for a psychology class, said the two merchants deserve "thanks" for helping put on a pizza and pop party for 12 patients.
"The class's goal is to interact with patients at the hospital and help them cope with the environment," said Mrs. Zumbro. "One of the projects was to throw a party. The two merchants donated goods so we could put on the party."
"We don't want to mention names, but do want to thank those merchants for their help, on behalf of both the class and the patients at the hospital."
The pizza party was put on in a ward of the hospital Oct. 6.
Pizza and pop for the party were donated by the merchants.
